

LARRY CAMPBELL & TERESA WILLIAMS

Live from the Archives, Vol.1

(Route 61 Music, 2022) RT612022002

The first volume of a series of releases, conceived by Route 61 Music and ADMR web radio. The series will showcase rock, blues and songwriting stars who have visited the "Legendary Chiari Rock & Blues Festival" over the years, where the Brescia-province town of Chiari becomes America. Larry Campbell and Teresa Williams were in Chiari the opening act for Blasters, in a memorable evening. This happened on May 2, 2018, and their set of pure beauty with two voices and two guitars, a songlist from original compositions from the duo's albums and country and blues traditionals, is now available to genre lovers in full, as the attending public will remember it. Campbell was a long time Bob Dylan guitarist. With his wife Teresa they contributed to numerous recordings, including those from the last studio albums published by the late Levon Helm, the legendary drummer and singer of The Band, when he was still with us. Jackson Browne said about them: "since I have met them, at a Levon's show, I've always desired to meet them on a stage".

Route61music.com admr-chiari.it